

nwa world traveler

NOVEMBER
2004

check in on:
nwa.com

Hot and Wilde Stops

Check out these two hip Minneapolis eateries

■ Located in the heart of downtown Minneapolis, Hell's Kitchen is known for its scrumptious breakfasts, like the Mahnomini Porridge, served with dried blueberries, sweetened cranberries and roasted hazelnuts. Owners Mitch Omer and Steve Meyer, who work hellish hours in the kitchen, named the restaurant partly after the famous New York neighborhood. www.hellskitcheninc.com

Hiking Switzerland
peak to peak

Ski Lodges
a cure for common cold

in tune with
MIDORI